PV intro_Students - PowerPoint

"Pharmacovigilance is a surveillance process which keeps tab on drug performance and its adverse effects post marketing across the globe in mass population"

Etymological Roots are: Pharmakon (Greek: The Drug) & Vigilar (Latin: To Keep Watch)

A slide from a Microsoft PowerPoint presentation titled "PV intro_Students - PowerPoint". The slide content discusses Pharmacovigilance as a surveillance process for drug performance and adverse effects post-marketing. It includes a definition, etymological roots (Pharmakon and Vigilar), and a small illustration of a human figure with a brain and heart.

COVID-19 VACCINATION MYTHS Vs FACTS

Participation by individuals capable of giving ICF as subjects must be VOLUNTARY

Although it may be appropriate to consult family members or community leaders, no individual capable of giving informed consent may be enrolled in a research study unless he or she freely agrees

A slide from a Microsoft PowerPoint presentation titled "COVID-19 VACCINATION MYTHS Vs FACTS". The slide discusses the importance of voluntary participation in clinical trials, emphasizing that informed consent is required from individuals capable of giving it.
